Effectively Handle Fair Housing Matters

*with Christopher A. Karsaz
of Karsaz & Associates*

Learn how to EFFECTIVELY handle Fair Housing matters. Discrimination complaints are on the rise in large part due to the ease with which a resident or prospective resident may file administrative complaints with the government. Based on our experience, most of these complaints are the result of existing residents attempting to avoid their own legal obligations by asserting baseless allegations against the community managers and / or leasing consultants. As with most claims, Management will often be forced to resolve the complaint on less than preferable terms, in an effort to avoid legal expenses associated with the defense of the complaint. If you have not had Fair Housing training lately, this is the class for you. Send your leasing consultants, your managers and most of all your owners. Protect yourself today, tomorrow and in the future.
